

MAILENA

Wellness Resort at the Islands of Loreto

Coming Late Summer 2026. Reservations available starting March 2026

Mailena is an exclusive wellness hotel in Loreto, Baja California Sur, focused on rest, health, and sustainability. Thoughtfully integrated into its natural surroundings, the resort combines luxury and functionality, with immersive wellness facilities, sustainable architecture, and serene design all crafted to elevate the guest experience.

We invite you to discover how the Islands of Loreto can elevate wellbeing—where the power of nature is not just seen, but felt. Surrounded by the protected waters of the Sea of Cortez and the majestic Sierra de la Giganta mountains—both UNESCO-designated national parks—this destination radiates a rare energy that rejuvenates, inspires, and captivates.

Mailena is a sanctuary for wellbeing, a place where guests are invited to restore, explore and live well. As a wellness collective rooted in conscious hospitality, we blend design, nature and purpose to create an authentic, holistic experience. Located in the magical landscape of Loreto, Baja California Sur, Mailena draws its essence from the earth, minerals, mountains and energy of its surroundings. Every space is crafted with passion and intention, inviting guests to reconnect with themselves through therapeutic rituals, curated treatments and meaningful rest.

Set on a site of over 5 acres, the property comprises 3 three story guest room buildings housing a total of 79 suites, in addition to 7 one-bedroom penthouses.

ARCHITECTURAL AND FUNCTIONAL LAYOUT

The hotel is organized into three main zones, laid out progressively from the entrance to the shoreline, each offering increasing levels of privacy embraces seamless integration with the natural surroundings, aiming to create harmony with the landscape, native vegetation and the region's climate. A key focus of the design is to minimize environmental impact both visually and functionally.

Mailena will be a deluxe hotel for its overall quality, design and service.

Room view

At Mailena, the guest experience begins with calm and grace. The luminous lobby welcomes without front desks or lines check-in flows effortlessly. Guests will be pre-checked in from the comfort of their homes the day prior arrival. Front desk will be replaced by intimate spaces and soft voices, inviting guests to immediately immerse in the Mailena way: serene, seamless, and attuned to the rhythm of the place.

WELLNESS LIVES IN EVERY DETAIL

Mailena offers 79 suites, 10 casita suites and 7 penthouses. Interiors blend natural textures, soft tones, and serene lighting. Each room opens to a balcony that feels like a private studio to stretch or meditate.
